Evolutionary

*Tazeen Hussain

This water started it all.
I come upon the edge
of my motherly ocean.
It waves at me
welcoming me back to its womb.
My cells come from her tides,
the evolving path I have walked.
From cell to plant to fish to me,
I crave the touch
of my beautiful mother.
The moon her reflection,
the stars her stretch marks.
She calls me back once again.
